

Groovin' Like a Peruvian

(by Paul Collins)

Hard to believe we're still Zoom dancing for a second straight spring and summer;
Which for some of us may seem to be a bit of a bummer;
Yet we find pleasure in dancing to the beat of different drummers.

A year ago Catherine taught us moves that Roman alleged were completely Tuvian;

This year Ruben has introduced us to new dance types that are Peruvian;
While Zoom screens constantly provide us with feline/canine activity unabashedly pluvian.

We've engaged folks like Yannis to show us dances that are Greek;
And do our best to bring you interesting dance programs every week;
And thank you much for dancing with us and providing the contributions that we seek.

While we all consider in-person dancing as an activity most preferable;
Your donations help fund the cost of zoom dancing, but best-of-all;
They enable us bring you events like Live Music Parties, Late Night After-Parties and Globally-Based Folk Festivals.
